

Peter Magadini

producer and percussionist

Peter Magadini is a professional drummer and percussionist who has a vast experience with all types of music, he has a knowledge and respect for tradition, and his consistent musical approach has established a foundation and trust for creative and exciting music making.

He has performed with Mose Allison, Chet Baker, Joe Pass, Zoot Simms, Sonny Stitt, Al Jarreau, George Duke, Diana Ross, just to mention a few.

Peter holds two degrees in Percussion and Performance from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and the University of Toronto. His teachers have included Don Bothwell, Roy Burns, Roland Kohloff (solo timpanist, New York Philharmonic) and North Indian tabla master Mahapurush Misra.

He has authored such books as the award-winning Polyrhythms-The Musician's Guide, Learn to Play the Drumset Vols. 1 and 2, Polyrhythms for the Drumset and Techniques in Percussion.